For Immediate Release	Contact: Erica Daughtrey
September 2, 2010	201-222-2828
46,309 New Jerseyans affected by the donut hole have rece	eived assistance
Washington, D.C- Today, Congressman Sires announced the and other Medicare beneficiaries have now received "donut prescription drug coverage gap. The fourth round of checks gone out over the last few days. Under the Affordable Care drug costs are so high that they fall in the Medicare prescription 2010 are receiving this one-time tax-free $250 rebate che over the next ten years.	hole" checks to begin to close their since health reform took effect has Act, seniors whose prescription tion drug donut hole coverage gap
"This is the first example of how the health care reform bill w seniors," stated Congressman Sires. "This check will assist dollars a year in drug costs and beginning in January 2011, receive a 50% discount on brand name drugs"	in saving our seniors thousands of Experts estimate that a total of 4 million seniors will receive a donut hole check over the next several months, as these checks will continue to be mailed out. A total of 46,309 Medicare beneficiaries in New Jersey have received a donut hole check so far.

###